1915-1920 Valuation Roll Tenant Alexander Ferguson

Peter Campbell Ferguson: Born 13th August 1895 at Glenogle, Son of Alexander Ferguson and Catherine Niven Campbell, Ardrostan Cottage, St.Fillans. Previous to joining the army he was employed at the Drummond Arms Hotel. He enlisted into the 9th Battalion of the Black Watch, 'Kitchener's Army' on 10th October 1916, and went to France in February 1917: wounded on 23rd April 1917, he returned home, going back to France in July 1917, he was posted to the 7th Black Watch, and saw much hard fighting while serving with that regiment. He was killed in the push of 21st March 1918. He was 20 years of age - Commemorated at: Grevillers British Cemetery (Ref: XI. A. 17)*

Alexander: Son of Alexander Ferguson and his wife Catherine Niven Campbell, Ardrostan Cottage, St.Fillans. He was employed as a porter at Comrie Station when he enlisted on the 5th August 1914, at the age of 17. He went out to France with his regiment in May 1915, serving with* them until he was attached to the signal section as a dispatch runner at the headquarters of the 153rd Brigade, 51st Division. In the advance at the battle of Ypres on the 31st July 1917, he so distinguished himself in the duty of carrying dispatches at a critical period in the fighting that he was awarded the Military Medal for his bravery. As the first soldier belonging to Comrie known to gain an honor, the inhabitants at a largely attended meeting in the public hall on the 9th September 1917, presented him, when home on leave with a gold watch and a sum of money in war bonds to commemorate the event.
